Presenting...

June 24 - David Horton

- Season Opener! David is a master of the keyboards and covers a variety of musical styles, including rock and roll, country, and blues standards. Spectacular lighting and superior sound complement his show.

July 1 - Dominion Road

- This local band plays all your favourites from yesterday and today in many musical styles. Come out and celebrate Canada Day with us at Firemen's Park and enjoy some great music under the setting sun.

July 8 - Lincoln and Welland Ambassadors Swing Band

- 1931: Duke Ellington introduced the world to swing music with "It don't mean a thing if you ain't got that swing". Catch all the wonderful music of our bygone days with these popular musicians.

July 15 - Metromatics

- Here's another great band with a sound that's just right for everyone: A great mix of contemporary music, country, rock, you name it. Sit back and relax to some cool rhythms and dynamic vocals.

July 22 - Brett Baker

- After a fabulous winter tour in Florida, Brett and Patti return to Firemen's Park with an evening packed with country classics by all the stars, and toe tappin' hits written by Brett as well!

July 29 - Niagara Falls Concert Band

- Our official Concert Band for the City of Niagara Falls returns to Twilight Tuesday to give another great performance of popular music from movies, shows, the stage, and of course, composers!

August 5 - Straight South

- Combining Classic Country with New Country, a little Rock, and an eclectic infusion of Soul, Steve and Kathleen's sound honours country music's roots while creatively pushing the envelope.

August 12 - David The Crooner

- "Singing songs that stand the test of time". An evening of memorable music featuring Randy Stirtzinger on Piano, Rob McBride on Bass, and Peter Shea on Drums.

August 19 - Peace River Band

- Mary Lou, Danny, Jimmy, Pete, Bill and Marcel return to our stage with a full range of stringed instruments and their wonderful harmony of folk and gospel styles.

August 26 - Randy Thomas

- Randy's "Solo/One Man Band" has been entertaining crowds for more than a decade with music from the 50's and 60's, Rock and Roll, and both traditional and new country.

September 2 - Against The Grain

- Sounds like: Great Big Sea, Blue Rodeo, Spirit of the West, Gordon Lightfoot, Stan Rogers, Traditional Folk and Celtic Artists, Hits of Yesterday and Today.

Our Season Finale - Don't miss it!!!
